

Living Well With Parkinson's Disease and Multiple Sclerosis

Sat., April 28, 2012 • 10:30 a.m.-1:15 p.m.
TD Convention Center • Greenville, S.C.

Please join us at this free event for practical information and encouragement to lead a full life.

Presenters

- Mary D. Hughes, M.D., Moderator; Chair, Neurology Division, Greenville Hospital System University Medical Center and Director, Neuroscience Associates
- Monique L. Giroux, M.D., Medical Director, Northwest Parkinson's Foundation and Virtual Wellness Center
- Patricia M. Kennedy, M.S.C.N., R.N., CNP, Nurse Educator/Programs Advisor, Can Do Multiple Sclerosis
- Zoe Koplowitz, author, motivational speaker and marathoner with MS

Agenda

10:30-11:00 a.m. – Registration and vendor exhibits

11:00 a.m.-Noon – Concurrent presentations

- Living Well With MS Patricia M. Kennedy, M.S.C.N., R.N., CNP
- Living Well With Parkinson's Disease Monique L. Giroux, M.D

12:15-1:15 p.m. – Lunch and keynote address – The Winning Spirit: Life Lessons Learned in Last Place Zoe Koplowitz

Lunch is included, and vendor exhibits will be available. To register (required), call 1-877-GHS-INFO (447-4636) or visit ghs.org/360healthd.

GREENVILLE HOSPITAL SYSTEM
UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER

ghs.org

This event is sponsored by Greenville Hospital System University Medical Center in cooperation with Parkinson's Support Group of the Upstate and Greater Carolinas Chapter of the National MS Society.